Safer Recruitment Policy

Commitment to Safeguarding Principles

Aubrick is firmly committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young learners and expects all staff members and volunteers to uphold this commitment. All appointments are subject to appropriate vetting procedures, including due diligence checks, professional references covering the past 10 years, and satisfactory criminal background clearances (in accordance with Article 59A of Law No. 8.069 of July 13, 1990 – the Statute of Children and Adolescents).

Commitment to Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging

Aubrick is dedicated to fostering an inclusive culture by identifying, recruiting, developing, and retaining high-performing professionals, regardless of gender, race, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, neurodivergence, socioeconomic background, or other demographic characteristics. Applicants who share our vision and values, and who are motivated to contribute to the success of the school through this role, are strongly encouraged to apply.
